What defines a world-class sustainable trail network?

What steps need to be taken to realize a sustainable trail network?

Are we on the right track?

You are invited to join a public open house session to learn about the Draft Trails Strategy for British Columbia and provide valuable feedback. Your input and comments will help to refine the proposed Strategy and guide future implementation.

If you are not able to attend, please submit comments on the Draft Strategy at www.tca.gov.bc.ca

A copy of the Draft Trails Strategy for British Columbia can be downloaded from www.tca.gov.bc.ca.
